Privacy

Please note that the information you provide on this form is "personal information" pursuant to the Privacy Act 1988 ("the Act"). This information is being collected for the purposes of processing your application, to provide you with membership services and to keep you informed of upcoming events. The intended recipient of this information will be Baking Industry Association Queensland and its service providers. Please note that the provision of this information by you is voluntary. However, if you do not provide the information requested, Baking Industry Association Queensland may be unable to process your application. You have the right of access to, and alteration of, personal information concerning yourself held by Baking Industry Association Queensland in accordance with the Act. The information is being collected by Baking Industry Association Queensland and will be held by Baking Industry Association Queensland.

Membership

1. Membership is activated when we receive from you a completed application form and payment. A receipt will be issued upon receipt of payment for a full twelve (12) month subscription.
2. Membership is for one (1) year commencing on the date your application is accepted, and is renewable on the anniversary of that date for a subsequent year.
3. Unless accessing monthly direct debit facilities, all membership fees must be paid annually in advance.
4. An invoice will be sent to you before your membership renewal date which is payable prior to your renewal date for membership fees paid annually.
5. Membership may be suspended or terminated if your payment is not received within seven (7) days of the membership renewal date. In this circumstance, The Baking Industry Association Queensland reserves the right to recover the monetary benefit of any membership discount(s) received by the member whilst the member was in arrears.
6. There is no refund of any membership fees should you cancel your membership at any stage during your membership year.
7. Changes to membership fees will only be made at the time of annual renewal of your membership.
8. Membership is not transferable.
9. You must notify us of changes to your contact details in writing (by letter, fax or email) otherwise we may not be able to make our services available to you.
10. We reserve the right to change, from time to time, the services available to members.
11. Any variations made to these Terms & Conditions may be made by the Baking Industry Association Queensland without express written notice to existing members and will be effective fourteen (14) days after the posting on Baking Industry Association Queensland's website.

Advisory Services

12. Any verbal advice provided by our advisers/consultants and staff (via one of our hotlines or otherwise):
 - > is given in relation to the baking industry only;
 - > is given in good faith;
 - > is given on the basis that you have accurately disclosed all relevant facts to us; and
 - > relates only to the facts which you have disclosed to us and to your individual circumstances.
13. Verbal advice may not represent the only or definitive solution to your enquiry or contain all the detail required to answer your enquiry fully, as the nature of the communication is instantaneous and prevents extensive deliberation. You should carefully consider the extent to which our verbal advice suits your objectives, financial situation or needs before acting on it as we may not be able to take them fully into account during a brief telephone conversation or initial meeting.

Disclaimer

14. In relation to the provision of membership services:
 - > we exclude all implied conditions and warranties, except those of which the exclusion would contravene any statute or cause any part of these terms and conditions to be void;
 - > to the fullest extent permitted by law, we will not be liable for any loss or damage (whether foreseeable or not) suffered by any person acting on our advice, whether the loss or damage arises in connection with our negligence, default or lack of care, any misrepresentation or any other cause; and
 - > our liability is limited to providing you with the services again.
